NOTE FOR: Legislative Counsel

George:

We have re-scheduled the second Executive Advisory Group meeting on Agency-Congressional Relations for 28 October at 3:30 p.m. While we have larger concerns in the Congressional area which need full consideration, I believe we should move ahead without further delay to discuss the proposed notice outlining new procedures for coordination of Congressional activities which you circulated at the last EAG meeting. Because this subject involves both the Agency and the IC Staff, I have asked [redacted] to attend this session.

Hank:

I've reviewed (once again) the OLC session planned for EAG. On rereading the paper, I find myself in agreement with you that Dan should participate in this meeting. I suggest we let George summarize his paper, then let discussion flow. Because Dan needs to leave by about 5:00, perhaps he could speak first. At the end, you might suggest: that paper be recast to take account of my comments (if you agree with them) and others offered; that implementing documents be prepared; that review staff concept be (over)

James H. Taylor, Comptroller

re-established; and that entire package be reviewed by you and Dan prior to signature by DCI within next two weeks or so. Attached is a suggested note from you to members explaining what we will address on Thursday.
